

Derby Culinary Weekend Break Saturday 22 – Sunday 23 May 2010

Saturday 22nd May 2010

Morning – Explore the culinary treats to be found around Derby's Cathedral Quarter – home to Red Zebra wine merchants, Serendipity local food specialist, Jack Rabbits home-cooking haven and Derby Market Hall including the traditional fish market.

On the hour from 10am – 3pm inclusive – Cookery demonstrations at Bennetts Department Store, Iron Gate, Derby. Pick up some tasty cooking tips and see a full range of cooking utensils and gizmos in the traditional store/delicatessen.

Midday – Lunch time – take your pick from a fantastic selection of restaurants, cafes and pubs around the traditional Cathedral Quarter, or go to Westfield Derby for a modern twist at the Eat Central food court where you can sample worldwide cuisine.

4pm – Derby Brewing Company tour of a micro-brewery, including real ale tasters, lunch at the award winning Brewery Tap pub including a legendary rack of 5 x third pint glasses of different real ales accompanied with a dish of tasty locally produced cheddar cheese plus a bottle of Derby Brewing Company beer to take away. £20 per person – bookings necessary – Tel: 01332 255802

How to find the Derby Brewing Company – Masons Place Business Park, Nottingham Road, Derby DE21 6AQ. Leave the car at your accommodation and travel by public transport to fully experience the real ale experience. The Arriva 20 bus service goes to Derby Brewing Company every 10 minutes or contact: Traveline on Tel. 0870 608 2 608 for more public transport information.*

Evening –

Dine out:

Contact Derby Tourist Information Centre to recommend a place to dine. From traditional English, to exotic Thai, Chinese, Italian, Indian, French or Mexican – Derby offers worldwide cuisine on every corner.

Visit the Derby Tourism website for special evening meal offers and other great ideas of what to do www.visitderby.co.uk Tel: 01332 255802

Continued ...

Theatre treats:

Derby Theatre presents a World Premier of Broken Hearted by Lucy Gannon
Tel: 01332 255800 www.derbylive.co.uk

Big Screen Choice:

QUAD presents the best in World, Hollywood and Independent films, check out their website for what's on www.derbyquad.co.uk Tel: 01332 290606 or check out the 12-screen Showcase Cinema de Lux in Westfield Derby complete with leather seated Director's Hall for an ultimate screen experience. www.cinemadelux.co.uk

Sunday 23rd May 2010

Leave your accommodation and travel to Kedleston Hall for the annual Derbyshire Food and Drink Fair – just 2 miles from Derby city centre. Visit the hundreds of local food producers, take time out to see Brian Turner demonstrating his celebrity cookery skills and stroll around the arts and crafts section. There will be a wealth of entertainment for all the family and the popular children's activity area.

For accommodation enquiries and recommended places to eat, please contact Derby Tourist Information Centre on Tel. 01332 255802. Tell them that you've seen the Derby Culinary Weekend Break itinerary and they'll be able to allocate you the most suitable accommodation for your needs.